SUBJECT: NATHAN AMES STOLPMAN, AGE 38

REF: (1): SLO Superior Court, Dept. #9, Case # 17CV0349, 7/20/2017

Dear Sir/Madam:

Background

I have been publically accused on Twitter of "gangstalking and harassment" by the subject (Stolpman) who operates a YouTube hoax news site known as "LIFT THE VEIL". This letter explains the present situation.

As you may know our courts are presently overburdened with unfounded, meritless, vexatious and frivolous (UMLV) lawsuits and complaints, such as those proffered by the subject last week when he attempted to obtain a harassment temporary restraining order (TRO) against another one of his victims; see ref. (a). The Honorable Judge Charles S. Crandell has dismissed the subject's ref. (a) TLO request.

To assist your office in understanding the subject's mindset I have attached an exhibit from that TLO request (see attachment below).

Subject's stalking of the undersigned in violation of Penal Code 646.9

The subject openly admits in a YouTube channel video, that he intended to intercept me while I was in Mt. Shasta where I work with wounded warriors and their spiritual practices to help emotional recovery (see screenshot attached below).

In the video, the subject blatantly challenged me to meet him while the video displays the Mt. Shasta city neighborhood in the background. This indicates that the subject drove over eight (8) hours to allegedly ambush me with his barrage of verbal harassment accompanied by clandestine video recording.

The subject has seized upon my achievements in assisting the Governor's Office of Emergency Services (OES) with my published papers on modernizing emergency management with cyber security response and recovery practices. I have been very active in promoting resilient cyber security infrastructure and to that end I am a designated California Emergency Management Specialist as conferred by OES.

Warnings to the subject

The subject has acknowledged, and subsequently ignored, at least three (3) written warnings to cease and desist with his cyber stalking practices. He continues to this day.

The subject continues to broadcast messaging intended to instill hatred, ridicule and scorn among his subscribers. He is fond of issuing calls to action concerning his perceived enemies list – of which I am apparently on (to my grievous misfortune). This includes relying on the technique of “CrowdStalking” to injure, harass and place individuals like me in fear.

Warm regards,

Dave Sweigert

Nathan's CH-100 was excluded from the paperwork I was served so I am not able to see his complaint. A lawyer that I was referred to by the SLO Bar, Jennifer Fehlman looked it up and told me that he's claiming I have made him suicidal. His demeanor on his YouTube show every day since filing contradicts that claim.

I am unable to attend this hearing because I lack reasonable transportation to your jurisdiction without financial hardship. I live 300 miles away from him and do not own a car. I have never been to his town. I have never threatened to harm Nathan. Nathan has released my full name and address and asked his 28k+ YouTube, Twitter and Discord subscribers to visit my home and to spy on my online activity and report back to him. Nathan has been a guest in my house and until he released my private info, he was the only non-family individual who knew my address. That information was never public before he released it. I am in the process of relocating to another state for my safety. Please do not rule against me in this matter as I am actually the party who is being harassed and only wish to move on. He is presenting our private messages on his show out of context to make it seem like I have threatened him. I never intended to be a public figure and I use a pseudonym to create satire videos on my own YouTube channel, Allseeing Ewe. Nathan made me a public figure by "doxxing" me. As a result of him falsely telling his big audience I'm stalking him, I have had my social media accounts flagged, my email signed up for a dating website and my cell phone number enrolled in several telemarketing call lists.

I am Nathan's former assistant and so I know him on a personal level. Our relationship was never romantic and only lasted for about 5 weeks before he picked a fight with me and I quit in April 2017. For several months since then, he has been publicly accusing me of being a Satanist and of working for pedophiles, and of stalking and harassing him. I have made several public attempts to resolve our conflict but he refuses to stop lying about me and asking his audience to harass me.

Nathan uses his large platform to pick public fights with many people and frame himself as the victim. Some of the more notable YouTube personalities he's gone after include David Seaman, Dave and George Sweigert, and Brittany Pettibone. He has claimed to have 3 other stalkers before me. He claims to have several undiagnosed mental disorders in order to excuse his behavior. He also says that he lives in a separate reality and does not believe he is a human being. His YouTube channel, Lift the Veil was disallowed from streaming and posting because of abusive treatment of other people, both public figures and private individuals. He had to create a second channel, Lift the Veil Live, because of that but continued to harass, bully and accuse people so it was also restricted. He is now on his third channel, Lift the Veil Too, and shows no indication of understanding that his actions are unacceptable. I am listing links to his videos below that show clear examples of his abusive behavior. I am including all the links in a pastebin.com account so that they do not have to be typed out manually (<https://pastebin.com/63sSw47Q>)

Fellow YouTube creator, Defango hosts an Ask Me Anything (AMA) session with me to try to publicly resolve this conflict. Nathan calls in via Skype and refuses to work things out. Call lasts 1:25:00-2:04:13

2:02:44 Nathan: "It's funny to me to post your name in videos."

Kerry: "That's totally different. Making a funny fish slap video and saying 'this is Kerry's house, go there.'"

Nathan: It's funny to me.

Defango: "You think that's funny? Because I don't think that's funny and I don't think anybody that I take and show that clip to is going to think it's funny."

Kerry: "I don't think the judge will think it's funny either."

Following months of false accusations made on his show against a long list of public figures and private individuals accusing us all of being Satanists and protecting or working for pedophiles, Nathan apologizes to everyone but me. He singles me out as the one person of this large group who is responsible for everything that he thinks has been done to him.

0:54 "I want to warn everyone that there is one person, a woman scorned you need to be cautious of and who I am filing a notice against, who has been preying on my natural tendency toward paranoia with sock puppet accounts telling me that a lot of you were attacking me who surely weren't."

Nathan calls Judith Lynn to confront her about his claim that she is stalking him.

33:06 "We're going to call Judith. Judith who threatens me in my effing email."

33:24 "Oh and she threatened me. Yes! Thank you. Whenever you threaten me, it gives me strength."

Nathan discussing his mental illness and amphetamine use with a fellow YouTube creator

15:30 "I do seem to have a mental illness. Well, a couple of them, actually. I basically am schizophrenic but I only exhibit symptoms of that (it seems like) when I don't have medication."

"I am not diagnosed that way but I clearly have... schizotypal personality traits. I also have some very severe ADD."

20:00 "...to answer your other question, [I have] delusions basically or misinterpretations of reality the way regular folks or the commonly accepted version of it that most people are living in. I live in a different version where different things are happening."

24:11 "I am not diagnosed schizophrenic. It's just I haven't told my doctor everything."
